

October 2009.

Only 28 days after the date I suppose to have my operation, my foot has been healed completely. These photos were taken by Sister Susan Ward, from the St Patrick's Cathedral in Parramatta. Actually my foot was in that condition at least one week earlier, but only then I managed to go to the Church to see her, and take the photos. Attached is also the letter of the cancellation of the operation, from Concord Hospital.
